Passed by Consensus

Resolution No. 001/17 Subject: EDUCATION FUNDING REFORM POSITION PAPER

MOVED BY: Chief Louise Hillier Caldwell First Nation

SECONDED BY: Chief Philip Franks Wahta Mohawks

Certified Copy of a Resolution Adopted on: May 29th, 30th and 31st, 2017 Caldwell First Nation WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their respective Nations by the Creator;

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, First Nations have a pre-existing right to develop and deliver our own Indigenous education systems and traditions, which must be fully funded by the federal government as agreed upon through our existing treaties;

WHEREAS, the Assembly of First Nations passed resolution 16/2016, entitled Honourable Process to Develop Recommendations to Support First Nation Education Reform, which mandates collaboration with Indigenous & Northern Affairs Canada (INAC) to develop First Nations' regional engagement processes for the development of recommendations on how to reform First Nations' education systems and to achieve a statutory K-12 funding formula;

WHEREAS, the Chiefs of Ontario passed resolution 21/16, entitled COOPF-Continue Development on Education Systems and Funding, which mandated the Chiefs Committee on Lifelong Learning to negotiate with Canada on the development of a funding methodology only, while leaving First Nation jurisdiction over education systems with First Nations. Further to this, the Chiefs of Ontario developed a Building a Funding Framework discussion guide to assist First Nations in their engagement discussions;

WHEREAS, as a first step, the Association held an Education Funding Reform Gathering on March 29th to 30th, 2017 to discuss and develop funding positions by undertaking a SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats) analysis on INAC's existing funding methodologies, which continuously impede the effective delivery of the member First Nations' education budgets and programs; and

Caldwell First Nation

WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their respective Nations by the Creator;

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, existing home services do not provide 24 hour care in the member First Nations' communities;

WHEREAS, there are significant limitations for member First Nations' most vulnerable community members, including seniors and elders, to turn to for long-term full time home care when they need it most;

WHEREAS, there are 26,000 people on a waiting list for long term care (LTC) placement in Ontario. Despite this wait list growing daily, Ontario has no plan to address the dire need for LTC home care in First Nations communities;

WHEREAS, the Province is not issuing any new LTC licenses at this time, even to First Nation communities. It is Ontario's current policy to focus funding investment on aging within the home; and

WHEREAS, capital subsidies for the construction of an LTC home are paid to the developer with a 25% equity requirement, creating significant financial barriers for First Nations to build LTC homes.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the General Assembly supports the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians' Chiefs Council to place political pressure on the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care (MHLTC) and the Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation (MIRR) to issue new Long Term Care (LTC) Home licenses to First Nations;

MOVED BY: Chief Louise Hillier Caldwell First Nation

SECONDED BY: Chief Laurie Carr Hiawatha First Nation

Certified Copy of a Resolution Adopted on: May 29th, 30th and 31st, 2017

Caldwell First Nation

WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their respective Nations by the Creator;

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, Cancer Care Ontario has entered into a Letter of Relationship with the Association to build on existing and new programs and joint initiatives to improve and advance cancer care, chronic disease prevention, and health initiatives with the Association, its member First Nations, and their citizens;

WHEREAS, the member First Nations are in support of a formalized relationship with Cancer Care Ontario in order to improve and address growing cancer rates within their communities; and

WHEREAS, the First Nations Information Governance Centre (FNIGC) has a set of standards that establish how First Nations' data should be collected, protected, used, or shared. The standards include four components: Ownership, Control, Access and Possession (OCAP).

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians' Chiefs Council advocate and stress the need for research and data collection that adheres to OCAP principles, so as to better procure necessary supports for addressing rising cancer rates in the member First Nations' communities; and

FINALLY, BE IT RESOLVED, the General Assembly directs the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians' Health/Social Advisory Board to continue to be a resource to the Chiefs Council and the member First Nations, to identify areas of improvement, and to provide recommendations related to cancer care.

Grand Chief Joel Abram

WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their respective Nations by the Creator;

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, the General Assembly passed resolution 09/2011, entitled Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians Youth Council, to recognize that our First Nation Youths' perspectives and contributions will support the future wellbeing of our Nations, as well as to support the development of an Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians' Youth Council (AIAI Youth Council);

WHEREAS, the General Assembly recognized and entrenched the value of our youth in resolution 01/2015, entitled Entrenching and Recognizing the Value of our Youth;

WHEREAS, the General Assembly supported resolution 02/2016, entitled Youth Resolution, to seek additional funding to support youth representatives, to ensure they are engaged in a meaningful way, and to assure that their perspectives are included and implemented through a strategic plan;

WHEREAS, youth representatives from each of the member First Nations participated in the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians Youth Symposium 2016-17 and committed to moving forward with the development of an ongoing AIAI Youth Council; and

WHEREAS, member First Nations have an inherent responsibility to ensure that their youth are engaged in a meaningful way and are provided the financial and human resources support to advocate and advance their needs and perspectives, as well as those of their Nations.

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, on December 21, 2016, the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications (CRTC) declared that broadband Internet access is considered a basic and essential telecommunication service for all Canadians;

WHEREAS, the CRTC is creating a new fund under an initiative called Closing the Broadband Gap that will invest up to $750 million over the next five years to ensure its universal service objective targets for telecommunications access are reached in all areas of the country and to support existing government programs related to telecommunications access;

WHEREAS, the CRTC is an administrative tribunal that regulates and supervises broadcasting and telecommunications in the public interest. The CRTC is administered through the Minister of Canadian Heritage;

WHEREAS, a lack of communication technology and infrastructure has a profoundly negative impact on citizens of the member Nations, inhibiting the development of businesses, as well as access to educational, health, mental health and social resources and services; and

WHEREAS, broadband Internet services are necessary to improving the quality of life for First Nation citizens.

Subject: ADVOCATING FOR DRUG PREVENTION
AND SERVICE FUNDING

MOVED BY: Chief Randall Phillips Oneida Nation of the Thames

SECONDED BY: Chief R. Donald Maracle Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte

Certified Copy of a Resolution Adopted on: May 29th, 30th and 31st, 2017 Caldwell First Nation WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their respective Nations by the Creator;

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, the misuse and abuse of prescription and illegal drugs is a growing issue facing many First Nations communities. This sweeping issue has trickled into many facets of First Nations' wellbeing causes issues such as increases in drug-related crime, substance misuse, and addiction;

WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians have limited community resources for the treatment, prevention, and after-care for community members who misuse and abuse prescription and illegal drugs;

WHEREAS, the member First Nations recognise that maximizing drug prevention efforts and minimizing drug-related crime must be a collaborative effort amongst various community services, including policing, mental health and addiction services, public education, and social services; and

WHEREAS, the member First Nations agree that policing services play a critical role in harmonizing community safety, security, crime prevention, and the promotion of wellbeing.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the General Assembly directs Chiefs Council to aggressively and persistently advocate for immediate funds to be made available for policing services for member First Nations;

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED, the General Assembly directs Chiefs Council to aggressively and persistently advocate for immediate funds to support community implemented programs for drug prevention and education; and

FINALLY, BE IT RESOLVED, that the General Assembly direct the Chiefs Council to aggressively and persistently advocate for immediate funds to support community "circle of care programs," including after care programs and housing, for individuals recovering from substance misuses.

Resolution No. 012/17 Subject: ADDITIONS TO RESERVE POLICY REFORM

MOVED BY: Brandon Doxtator (Youth Delegate) Oneida Nation of the Thames

WHEREAS, First Nations' self-determination pre-exists contact with external governments and entities. That self-determination and sovereignty remains today, and has not and cannot be surrendered;

WHEREAS, the member First Nations of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians affirm their sovereignty, founded in the responsibilities provided to their

SECONDED BY: Chief Louise Hillier Caldwell First Nation WHEREAS, Additions to Reserve (ATR) is a process for adding reserve land to a First Nation's reserve. Reserve creation can refer to either adding land to a First Nation's existing reserve land base or to creating a new reserve for a First Nation. The ATR process is the federal government's way of managing these requests; and

WHEREAS, the current ATR policy does not meet the needs of the member First Nations.
